Question and Answers

 1. Q: Do we complete a WH-58/Cancer Screen for patients with third party payors?

Payor Source	Complete the WH-58 Form/Cancer Screen	MDE Record
KWCSP (813 Cost Center)	Yes	Yes
Family Planning Program (802 Cost Center receiving Pap/HPV test or follow-up Dx services)	Yes	Yes
Third Party Payors and receiving cancer screening services	Yes	No
Family Planning Program or third party payors (receiving just CBE or Pelvic Exams)	No	Not Applicable

Question and Answers

 2. Q: How do we mark MDE record for Family Planning Program patients?

A: Mark MDE record as “Yes only if a FP patient has Pap and/HPV test/ follow-up diagnostic services.

 3. Q: Do we complete MDE screen if a patient only had a pelvic exam but no other services including CBE, Pap, HPV or a mammogram?

A: No, do not fill out WH-58 forms/cancer screen on such patients. CDC does not consider pelvic exam as a cervical cancer screening service.

Question and Answers

 4. Q: Can patients be screened who don't reside in Kentucky? Has this changed?

A: KWCSP will reimburse for services for any patient as long as they qualify, irrespective of their primary residence.

 5. Q: When entering the 'Prior PAP test date' on the WH-58/Cancer Screen, it does not take the full date.

A: Please use 01 for unknown month and day. Ex: 01/01/2022.

Question and Answers

 6. Q: What do we do when several providers appear under the site #/county dropdown on the WH-58 Cancer Screen (no longer relevant)?

A: If providers have retired or no longer participating, please contact Local Health Operations @ localhealth.helpdesk@ky.gov 502-564- 6663, Option 1. They will delete them from the list.

Question and Answers

 7. Q: When do we use the option of Lost to Follow-up?

A: “Lost to Follow-up” option should be used for women when tracking efforts have been attempted, but have failed regardless of whether the reason is known (i.e. death, moved).

 8. Q: What date do we use to report Lost to Follow-up?

A: You can use the date of last contact with the patient or certified letter date.

Question and Answers

 9. Q: When do we use the option of Work-up Refused?

A: “Work-up Refused” option should be used when a patient does not keep an appointment or refuses services.

 10. Q: What date do we use to report Work-up Refused?

A: You can use the date of last contact with the patient or certified letter date.
